ORDER

Pending before the Court is Defendant American Family Mutual Insurance Company's Motion to Dismiss (Doc. No. 4), which seeks partial dismissal of plaintiff's claims. Defendant seeks dismissal of plaintiff's claims for punitive and emotional distress damages, as well as plaintiff's claims for "violation of the Attorney-Client Relationship"¹ pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). Plaintiffs filed no opposition to the pending motion.

After reviewing the pending motion, the Court finds that defendant's motion should be GRANTED for the reasons stated in defendant's motion (Doc. No. 4) and suggestions in support (Doc. No. 5). Plaintiffs' claims for punitive and emotional distress damages are dismissed as they are preempted by Missouri's vexatious refusal to pay statute, Mo. Rev. Stat. § 375.420. Further, no cause of action exists under Missouri law for "violation of the Attorney-Client Relationship," so plaintiff's claims for the same must be dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

¹Plaintiffs allege that their attorney sent defendant a letter on March 24, 2009, but that subsequent to receipt of this letter, defendant continued to "have ex parte contact and communications with Plaintiffs without the consent or permission of Plaintiff's counsel." See Doc. No. 1, Ex. 1, ¶ 9.
